

Consultation Flowchart for International Students

• Consultations at each section may be shared with other sections for educational purpose if necessary. If it is inconvenient to be shared, please let us know at the time of consultations.

• (International Student Section) indicates that the cooperation of the International Student Section may be required to respond to consultations from international students who would like to talk in English.