To Privately Financed International Students

International Center

Call for Applications: Kyoritsu International Foundation Scholarship (April 2027 – March 2028)

We would like to inform you of a scholarship opportunity for privately financed international students offered by the Kyoritsu International Foundation.

Please refer to the information below for details regarding eligibility requirements and the application procedure. Please note that a recommendation from your supervisor is required to apply for this scholarship, and the university can nominate only one candidate to the Foundation.

If you wish to apply, please carefully review the following conditions and consult with your supervisor first. Each laboratory may recommend only one candidate.

If you are selected as a candidate by your laboratory, please submit the required application documents to the International Center by the specified deadline.

If we receive more than one application, the university will conduct an internal selection process to determine the final nominee.
